

The 8th Argylls' Polka

8th Argylls' Polka (from previous page) intended as a companion piece and rival to other polkas bearing the names of great Highland regiments such as the Royal Scots and the Black Watch. It does not seem to have been published elsewhere as a pipe tune; I heard it many years ago on the radio.

Pipe Major William Lawrie with the band of the 8th Argylls c. 1910