

Bellslea Park

March

The musical score for 'Bellslea Park' March is written in 6/8 time and consists of ten staves. The notation includes treble clefs, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and various musical symbols such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and repeat signs. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a 6/8 time signature. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The score includes several repeat signs, with the first and third staves starting with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The final staff ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The score is divided into two main sections by a bracket labeled '1.' and '2.'.

Bellslea Park (setting on previous page): Named for a local soccer ground where as a child with a little ingenuity you could watch Highland League football for nothing. It had a wonderfully atmospheric old wooden grandstand, so I suppose I must have paid sometimes. The musical idea here was to stop trying to reach for formal novelty and do something strictly orthodox in structure with repeated motifs in the usual places.
