

The City Bank Swindlers: This is from Colin Cameron's manuscript where the composer is given as "Wm. Earl of Sky", a nickname of William Sutherland of Airdrie. The tune commemorates the spectacular default of the City of Glasgow Bank in 1878. I have brought the ornamentation a little more into keeping with modern practice. Sutherland was a prolific composer of jigs. One of his main pupils was Dr. Charles Bannatyne, founder of the Pipers and Dancers' Union, leading commentator on pìobaireachd and himself a talented composer of light music for the pipe whose tunes include The Blackbird and The Brolum.

Dr. CHARLES BANNATYNE.
