

Paddy Kelly's Stump: is one of the catchiest of hornpipes; the Bucksburn and District pipe band used to play it, but I do not know where they got it. The rapid cross fingering provides an interesting technical challenge without quite making it, as old Donald MacDonald would have said, altogether "ill to play."

MARCHES		STRATHSPEYS		REELS
THE TIGT HIGHLANDERS	61	THE PIPERS' BONNET	87	THE REJECTED SUITOR	104
THE CLAN MACCOLL	61	BLAIR DRUMMOND	88	OVER THE ISLES TO AMERICA	105
BONNIE ANN	62	THE SHEPHERD'S CROOK	88	THOMSON'S DIRK	106
THE ABERCRAIGNEY HIGHLANDERS	63	ATHOLE CUMERS	88	LORD MACDONALD	106
KANTARA TO EL ARISH	64	MAGGIE CAMERON	89	LOCHEIL'S AWAY TO FRANCE	107
THE HIGHLAND WEDDING	64	THE FIVE WITH THE COOKED HORN	90	SANDY CAMERON	107
THE EDINBURGH VOLUNTEERS	65	THE BOB OF FATHER CARMON	90	CAMERONIAN RANT	108
ANGUS CAMPBELL'S FAREWELL TO STRATH	66	ARMISTON CASTLE	91	BRIDGE OF PERTH	108
MRS J. MACCOLL	67	MAC BETH'S STRATHSPEY	91	THE FLAGGON	109
GLENGARRYS CATHEDRAL	67	CAPTAIN JACK MURRAY	92	MACALISTER'S DIRK	110
THE CRAIGS OF STIRLING	68	CABER FAIGH	92	REEL O' TULLOCH	110
MILLBANK POTAGE	69	MACLENNAN'S OVERCOAT	92	MISS PROUB.	111
PAP OF GLENCOE	77

Classic marches, strathspeys and reels from the MS book of Davie Duncan the leading pipe-major of Bucksburn and District Pipe Band