

The Periwig: This is quite an old tune going back in the fiddle collections to the early 19th century; the tune was first published in a pipe setting in Donald MacDonald's Collection of Quicksteps, Strathspeys, Reels & Jigs, 1828, and the Glens have it, too, but it has not been published in recent times; the present version is mainly the one I found in Colin Cameron's manuscript.

Three periwigged figures drinking a toast with 'Highland Honours'