

Miss Florence Leslie

March

Miss Florence Lesley: I jotted this down as a march, but with its jaunty phrasing it might be better described as a polka.

Miss MacGregor's Favourite

March

Miss MacGregor's Favourite: This is in Logan's Tutor (published about 1901) but as far as I am aware has not been republished more recently. Looking at recent recordings it is obviously current in neighbouring branches of tradition, although the pipers, who may have originally created the tune, seem to have forgotten it.
