

7/8th K.O.S.B.'s March to the Somme: I picked this up off an old pipe band LP, and I do not know who wrote it. It was recorded by Jimmy Shand, but it is not listed amongst his compositions. It is very sparingly constructed: parts three and four being artfully quarried out of parts one and two. The 7/8th K.O.S.B. were “New Army” battalions and amalgamated following heavy losses to both during the Battle of Loos. I gave the second repeat in part four a little twist.