

The image displays three staves of musical notation for a piece titled "The Bird Song". The notation is written in a simplified, stylized manner. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains several measures of music, including a half note, a quarter note, and a group of beamed eighth notes. The second staff continues the melody with similar note values and rests. The third staff concludes the piece with a final measure containing a half note. The notes are represented by solid black circles, and the stems are simple vertical lines. The overall style is minimalist and focuses on the rhythmic and pitch contours of the melody.

A vertical strip of musical notation from a manuscript, showing four staves. The notation includes various notes (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and bar lines. The staves are arranged vertically, with the top staff showing a single note and the bottom staff showing a sequence of notes. The notation is in black ink on a light background.
