The musical score is arranged in two columns. The left column contains five systems of staves, and the right column contains four systems. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines, indicating a complex piece of music. The first system in the left column is marked with '1. 10. 13 2.' and the second with '2. VI.'. The right column has systems marked '3. VI.', '4 0.', and '5 0.'.

XLVI. 71.

A vertical musical staff on the right side of the page, containing musical notation and a small illustration of a building. The staff is labeled 'XLVI. 71.' at the top.
