

1st PRIZE WINNER
Pipe-Major JOHN McLELLAN
D.C.M., Dunoon

2nd PRIZE WINNER
PETER MacLEOD, Jr., Glasgow

3rd PRIZE WINNER
RODERICK CAMPBELL
Edinburgh

THIS book is the answer of Scotland and her sons to the suggestion that the age of great writers of bagpipe music is no more.

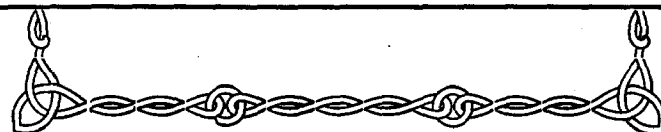

The tunes contained in it were selected from 235 which came from all parts of the world in connection with the competition, for the best original march, promoted by the Cowal Highland Gathering Committee in association with the Proprietors of the Scottish Edition of the Daily Express, who generously provided the prizes.

The ready assistance given by Pipe-Major William Ross and Pipe-Major William Taylor, in adjudicating, is gladly acknowledged by the Committee. They are doubly grateful to Pipe-Major Taylor for the earnest care with which he edited the score.

A previous collection was issued shortly after the war when we remembered with pride the great part Scottish pipers had played in gaining the victory. We still remember them and to their undying memory we reverently dedicate this book.

H. S. STRAFFORD, Hon. Secy.
For the Committee.

March 1st, 1932.

Contents.

Balgie Burn	-	-	21
Ballochyle	-	-	3
Ballygowan	-	-	12
Barnacabber	-	-	9
Bencorrum	-	-	10
Benmore	-	-	6
Castle Toward	-	-	4
Cowal Gathering	-	-	2
Dalinelongart	-	-	19
Dunloskin	-	-	13
Dunans Castle	-	-	17
Gall Ruadh	-	-	19
Glen Finnart	-	-	18
Glegarr	-	-	14
Glenmorag	-	-	8
Glenstriven	-	-	15
Hafton Woods	-	-	4
Knockdow	-	-	16
Puck's Glen	-	-	7
Stronsaul	-	-	11