

The Duke of York's Wedding March.

26. The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. It begins with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The tempo is indicated by a 'C' time signature. The music consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a lively, dance-like melody. The score is divided into two main sections: the first section is marked '1st' and the second section is marked '2nd'. Both sections end with a double bar line and repeat signs. The notation includes various musical symbols such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests, all arranged in a clear and legible manner.
