ished in Glen, under the above name "Salute." Both versions have sixteen bars. The first version is omitted in "Ceol Mor," whereas Bar N. is omitted in the second. These two versions agree. The 15th Bar in the above is an analysis of Glen's version. The purpose of General Thomason's endeavour was to show a 6. 6. 4. Therefore there are two bars following the principles governing the construction of the repetition of the 1st and 2nd bars and the 6th. The excess bars in the Third version would appear to be the result of a mutilation.
