

THE END OF THE HIGH BRIDGE[†] (1427)

GEANN NA DROCHAIDE MÓIRE.

Urlar. Adagio.

56.  This section contains the first variation of the tune, marked '56.' and 'Urlar. Adagio.' It consists of four staves of music in treble clef, 2/4 time. The melody is characterized by frequent grace notes (quavers and semiquavers) tied to the main notes, creating a rhythmic complexity. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

Var. 1st  This section contains the first variation of the tune, marked 'Var. 1st'. It consists of four staves of music in treble clef, 2/4 time. The melody continues with the same rhythmic complexity as the first variation, featuring many grace notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

Var. 2nd Slow and pointed.  This section contains the second variation of the tune, marked 'Var. 2nd Slow and pointed.' It consists of two staves of music in treble clef, 2/4 time. The tempo and character change significantly, becoming slower and more pointed. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

* The Quaver and Semiquaver Grace Notes tied to the Notes of the Melody by a "bind" form a part of the Melody, but the time required for their performance not be allowed for in the time of the Bar, their value has therefore to be deducted from the Melody Note before which they are placed. When the Melody Note is even, one half is deducted, when that note is dotted two thirds is deducted.
