

SPAIDSEARACHD IARLA ROIS.

The Earl of Ross's March.

Composed by

Donald Mor Mac Crummen.

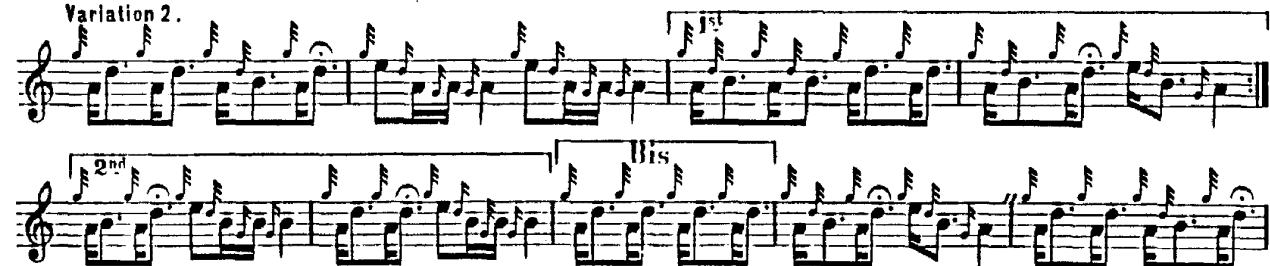

About the Year 1600.

Variation I.

Variation 2.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. It consists of two main sections: Variation 2 and Variation 3.

Variation 2: This section begins with the title "Doubling of Variation 2" above the first staff. It contains 12 staves of music. The notation includes eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. There are repeat signs with first and second endings indicated by "1st" and "2nd" above the staves.

Variation 3: This section begins with the title "Variation 3." above the first staff. It contains 12 staves of music. The notation is characterized by frequent triplets, indicated by a "3" over a bracketed group of notes. There are also repeat signs with first and second endings. A "Bis" marking appears above a staff, indicating a repeat or a double performance of a phrase.

The score concludes with a "Bis" marking above the final staff.
