

A I R S
Composed in the Islands of
UIST AND SKYE.

Each of these liltts have words, some of which go so far back as the times of the Druids, which D. M^s D. being in possession of, intends publishing along with their translation, as also a number more in Vol: 2^d

HUMOROUS.	Fhuair mi Litir ón Ghobhadh, &c. An Elegiack Song.
LIVELY.	É ho rō, mo ghorm shuileag Dhubh. The black haired Girl with the blue eyes.
HUMOROUS.	Ho rō gum baobhuin leam, &c. The Sham Resurrection.
LIVELY.	Ho rō hoi hug oriannan, &c. The wind bound Sailor.
SLOW.	A Mhic 'n Fhir ó'n Eilean Sgiathach. The Female lover's Challenge.
SLOW.	Mac mo Righ s' dol na eideadh. Sung in the times of the Druids.

O hi eile, O ho hi ri. Enlarging on her lover's Praise.
 SLOW
 A Leannain mo ruin. The once faithful lover.
 SLOW
 Mo ghaol an Colgairneach spraeicil. A Combat betwixt the friend & foe of Whisky.
 BRISK
 B'fhearrleamsa na Breacan. I would forfeit my Plaid.
 SLOW
 A mhic Jain mhic Sheumais. A Battle fought between the M^cDonalds & the M^cLeods.
 VERY SLOW
 FINIS.